

Managing for Success

The key to effective practice management

Managing for Success is the quarterly magazine of the Law Management Section - which provides readers with practical guidance, information and support on a full range of practice management disciplines.

Now in its ninth year, the Section has built up a reputation for supplying robust and pertinent information on how to run a profitable and dynamic law firm. It keeps readers up-to-date on the changes in the industry, including legal services reform, increased competition, the rise of e-business, new employment regulations, as well as how to deal with more demanding clients.

New - Offers CPD points

By taking an online quiz related to Managing for Success content, members now have the opportunity to claim valuable Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points, which all practising solicitors must gain each year.

Written by experts in the field, regular features on a range of practice management disciplines include:

- Business development
- Client care
- Coaching
- Finance
- HR
- IT
- Leadership
- Lexcel practice management standard
- Marketing
- Quality
- Risk

Managing for Success reaches 2,000 members, including managing partners and practice managers, and offers advertisers an opportunity to target key decision-makers with products and services.

Membership is open to solicitors, management staff of legal practices/departments and suppliers of financial or management services to legal practices. An annual subscription to Managing for Success is also available to non-members.

Managing for Success is published in January, April, July and October.
